

The Daily Courant.

Friday, November 8. 1706.

London, November 8.

The Capitulation upon which the Island of Majorca submitted to the Obedience of King Charles III.

Capitulations which are desir'd of his Excellency Admiral Leake, who commands the Fleet of Her Britannick Majesty, by the Illustrious Earl of Alcudia, Vice Roy and Captain General of the City and Kingdom of Majorca, in Order to the surrender of the said City and Island.

Art. 1. THAT the Place and Island, with the Castles, Forts, and Towers, shall be surrendred to the Forces of Her Britannick Majesty two Days after the Signing of the Capitulations; and that immediately after Signing shall be deliver'd up the Field-Gate, with the Bastion of the Prince; and in the Interim there shall be no Hostilities committed either on the one Part or the other, and strict Orders shall be given to any of his People that enter, that they hinder all Confusions, Encounters, and Disorders: which shall be inviolably complied with.

Ans. 'That the Place and Island of Majorca, with all their Castles, Forts, and Towers, shall be deliver'd to the Forces of his Catholick Majesty and of his high Allies Twelve Hours after Signing the proposed Capitulations; and that immediately after Signing, the City of Majorca shall take care to appoint such a Number of Men the most proper to that End, that may immediately possess for King Charles III. the Field-Gate, and the Bastion of the Prince; and in the Interim there shall be no Hostilities committed either on the one Part or the other; the said City remaining to give positive and strict Orders to the Body of Militia appointed for that purpose, that they hinder all Confusions, Encounters, and Disorders; which the Admiral for his Part engages carefully to do.

Art. 2. That the Illustrious Earl of Alcudia Vice-Roy, shall freely go out to embark, as also the Ministers as well of the Royal Audience as of the Royal Patrimony, and of the Tribunals, Magistrates and any other Officers as well Royal as Universal, of any Degree, Preheminence or Condition soever; and that any other Persons, Natives of this City and Island, or Strangers, as well Ecclesiasticks as Seculars, that will depart with their Families, Cloaths, Goods, and Moveables, may embark with the Illustrious Vice-Roy if they please, without suffering any Hostilities or Vexation by the Force of the Admiral or by the Peasants or Citizens, in their own Persons or Families; as also that the Baggage and Effects which they desire to carry with them to the Place appointed, shall not be detain'd, upon any Pretext for what they may have Acted in the new Reign since the Death of his Majesty King Charles II. of blessed Memory; and the Peasants and Citizens shall exactly and punctually observe the Contents of this and the other Capitulations, on the Penalty of being severely Chastized.

Ans. 'All this Article is agreed to, except only that none of the French Nation shall carry away any Part of their Effects.

Art. 3. That the said Illustrious Vice-Roy, Ministers, and other Persons mentioned in the foregoing Article, may have free Liberty to embark and go out of this City and Island, with any Imbarkations as well French as others that are to be found in this Port or Island, as soon as the Place is deliver'd, to any Port of Spain, France or Italy, as they shall appoint or think fit, and that the Admiral shall give them sufficient Convoys.

Ans. 'This Article is Agreed to, with the same Limitations as the Second.

Art. 4. That in Case the said Illustrious Vice-Roy, Ministers, and other Persons abovemention'd desire immediately to be going, and don't find sufficient Imbarcations to carry them to the said Ports, the Admiral shall give necessary Orders that they may be provided with what necessary Imbarcations they may have Occasion for.

Ans. 'Agreed.

Art. 5. That in Case any of the Inhabitants of this City or Island abovemention'd desire to imbark and go to other Dominions they may, and shall be admitted to stay in the Place Six Months, with their Liberties, Families, Equipage, and Moveables; the necessary Passports being given them; and they shall have one Year to dispose of their Lands and Estates, and enjoy their Product.

Ans. 'In Case any of the Inhabitants of the aforementioned City and Island of Majorca, desire to imbark and go to other Dominions they may, and shall be admitted to stay in the Place one Month, with their Liberty, and their Families, Equipage and Moveable Goods, with their necessary Passports; and shall have Three Months to dispose of their Lands and Estates, and enjoy their Product; except those of the French Nation, as express'd in the Answer to the Second Article.

Art. 6. That the Garrison in the Castle and Fortress of St. Charles, shall go out freely with all their Officers, as well Spaniards as French, delivering up at the same Time the City evacuated, the Castles and Forts; and that the French Garrison that are found in the said Castle with their Commanders and Officers, shall be suffer'd to depart, carrying with them all the Tarrans in which they came to this Island; with all their Equipage, Arms, Ammunition and Provisions that they brought, Masters and Marriners, with all things convenient for the Security of their Voyage to some Port of France.

Ans. 'The French Troops that imbark shall not carry with them Arms, Ammunition or Provisions, only of the latter sufficient shall be given them for their Subsistence in their Voyage; and only so many Barks as may be barely necessary to carry them to some Port on the Coast of France.

Art. 7. That the Lives and Estates of the Natives and Inhabitants, remain secure and safe, although they be French; and that the Consul of that Nation now in this City or Island, and the other Strangers, as well Neighbours and Inhabitants of the said City, as also any others of the other Towns of the Place, suffer no damage in their Persons or Families; neither shall their Houses or Goods be Sack'd, or suffer any Hostilities by either Soldiers or Peasants; and that if they desire it, they may have Passports to go out of the Island to France or any other Place.

Ans. 'This Article is agreed to, with the same Exceptions as the Second.

Art. 8. That the City and Island of Majorca, their Natives and Inhabitants, and all the Commons and and others, as well Ecclesiasticks as Seculars, shall be confirm'd and maintain'd in all their Privileges, Laws, Rights and Liberties, as well Common as Particular, that they have enjoy'd and enjoy, and were allow'd by the serene Kings of Arragon and Majorca.

Ans. 'The Privileges, Rights and Liberties, shall be allow'd the said City in the same manner as they enjoy'd them at the Death of King Charles the 2d, who is in Glory.

Art. 9. That nothing shall be touch'd belonging to the Cathedral Church and others of this City and Island, Convents, Monastries, Chappels, Hospitals, and other Sacred and Pious Places; nor the Cloaths, Goods, Money, Silver, Gold, Jewels, or any other things of Value, that may be deposited in them, as well the Effects of the said Churches and Places, as of particular Persons that have taken Refuge in them; and that all those Sacred and Pious Places, with the Persons in them, as well Ecclesiasticks as Seculars, shall be maintain'd in all their Rights.

Ans. 'Agreed to, except that those of the French Nation shall have no Benefit by the present Article.

Art. 10. That the Houses and Goods of the Bishop, Vicar-general, Canons and other Ecclesiasticks of this City and Island, shall remain free and safe, preserving untouched and without prejudice all their Jurisdictions, as well Episcopal as others, their Curates, and all their Goods, as well in the City as out of it; enjoying and administering all with the liberty that they at present enjoy and administer.

Ans. 'Agreed.

Art. 11. That there shall be no Innovations nor Prejudice done to the Immunities and Privileges either Ecclesiastical or Royal, and other Prerogatives that have been granted the said Churches, Convents and sacred Places, as well in common as particular; but that they remain with their Liberties and Prerogatives that hitherto they have attain'd.

Ans. 'Agreed.

Art. 12. That the Tribunal of the Inquisition shall be permitted and continued as it hath been heretofore, with the same Prerogatives, Jurisdictions and Privileges, as well the Tribunal as their Ministers.

Done at the Castle Royal of Majorca the 27th of September 1706.

Ans. 'Agreed, On Board the Prince George the 28th of September 1706.

Portsmouth, Nov. 5. Yesterday a Ship came to an Anchor at some distance from St. Hellens, and made Signals of Distress, it being the nearest Land they could fetch; a great many Boats went off to her, she prov'd to be Her Majesty's Ship the Warspighr, Captain Strickland Commander; she sail'd from hence Convoy to the late Lisbon Fleet, and met with a Storm in the Bay of Biscay; in which she lost all her Masts and drove 4 Days on the Coast of Galicia; but the Wind shifting she made this Place. In her are Colonel Garth, Colonel Montcal, and several other Officers, who were bound for Spain.

Deal, Nov. 6. To Day came into the Downes Her Majesty's Ship the Berwick, from Spithead, with several Ships and Coasters under her Convoy.

By her Majesty's Company of Comedians.

AT the Queen's Theatre in the Hay-Market, this present Friday, being the 8th of November, will be presented a Comedy, call'd, The Royal Merchant, or, Beggars-Bush. And to Morrow, being Saturday the 9th of November, will be reviv'd a Comedy, call'd, The Man of Mode, or, Sir Fopling Flutter. All the Parts being perform'd to the best Advantage. Particularly Sir Fopling Flutter by Mr. Cibber, Dorimant by Mr. Wilks, Harriet by Mrs. Bracegirdle, Lovett by Mrs. Barry.

These Plays are Sold by J. Knapton at the Crown in St. Paul's Church-yard, and B. Linfort next Nando's Coffee-House, Temple-Bar.

AN Entertainment by Mr. CLINCH of BARNET, who imitates the Flute, Double Currell, the Organ with 3 Voices, the Horn, Huntsmen and Pack of Hounds, the Sham Doctor, the Old Woman, the Drunken Man, the Rells: All Instruments are perform'd by his natural Voice. To be seen this present Evening at 7 o'clock at the Crown Tavern in Smithfield. Price 1 s.

Last Sunday was Fortnight ran from his Master Benjamin Tull, a young Man about 20, long visag'd, pitted with the Small-Pox, slow of Speech, full Eyed, of a dark Complexion, long Chin'd, has a stooping gate and Splaw-footed; he went away in a sad-colour'd Cloth-Coat and a dark Bob Wig, and carried with him upwards of 200 l. Whoever secures him so that the Money may be recover'd, shall have 20 l. Reward, or proportionable for part of it, let them give notice to Mr. Haslefoot at the Fox in Cheapside.

On Monday next being the 11th of this Instant November, will be sold by Auction a Catalogue of valuable English Books, in all Volumes and most Faculties, at Mr. Southby's at the Christian Coffee-House in St. John's-street near Smithfield-Bar, beginning at 5 a Clock in the Evening till 9, and continue daily till all are sold, where the Books may be seen and view'd on Monday before the Sale begins. Catalogues may be had at Mr. Pool's under the Piazza of the Royal Exchange, Mr. Parkhurst's at the Bible and a Crown in Cheapside, Bookellers, and at the Christian-Coffee-House near Smithfield-Bar, the Place of Sale.

The Library of Mr. Serjeant Munday deceased, consisting of a very good Collection of Law, Divinity, History, Travels, &c. will be sold by Auction, on Monday the 11th of November, at Ballgrave-head Coffee-house without Temple-Bar, by Tho. Ballard. Catalogues are to be distributed at Mr. Brown's without Temple-Bar, Mr. Barker's in Fleetstreet, Mr. Knapton's in St. Paul's Church-yard, Mr. R. Parker's under the Royal Exchange, and Mr. Helme's at the King's-head Westminster-Hall, and at the Place of Sale.

At the Red Lion over-against the new Play-House in the Hay-Market, Druggist, is Linseed-Oyl cold drawn every day to be sold, and for the convenience of them that live at the other end of the Town the same Linseed-Oyl is sold at the Hanch of Venison in Lombard-street, Cook, and no where else.

At a Vault under a Miliner's Shop over-against Cross-Lane on Pig-hill by Billingsgate, is very fine right Uquebanight and Ratania to be sold, where all Masters of Ships, Victuallers, Coffee-Houses, &c. may be served at 5 s. per Gallon. Attendance will be given from 8 to 1 a Clock. Pray have not the less Esteem of it because it is Cheap, but come and taste it.

At the Hammums in Covent-Garden are the best Accommodations for Persons of Quality to Sweat, or Bath every Hour in the Year, the Conveniences of all kinds far exceeding any other Bagnio, both for Rich and Poor: Persons of good Reputation may be Accommodated with handsome Lodgings to lye all Night. There is also a Man and Woman who Cup after the newest and easiest Method: In the Garden of the same House is also a large Cold Bath of Springs, Water that's supplied from a Well under the Dwelling-House, which for its Coldness and Delicacy deserves an equal Reputation with any in use.

The only fam'd and first Venetian Stropps publish'd in England, (neatly fix'd on Boards) which for polishing and setting Razors, Penknives, Lancets, &c. are not to be parallel'd, being much more durable and smooth, never growing Rough by using, but setting Razors, &c. with greater Fineness, and Exactness than any Counterfeits possibly can. Price 1 s. each. Also the most excellent Venetian Metal-Boards of the same Bigness for sharpening all sorts of Knives, immediately and without trouble to Admiration, tho' the Edge be never so thick or knotch'd. Price 1 s. each with Directions. For both are sold only at Mr. Allcraft's, a Toy-shop, at the Bluecoat-Boy against the Royal Exchange in Cornhill, Mr. Brooke's a Stationer at the Ship near the May-Pole in the Strand, and at Mr. Cooper's, a Toy-shop, the corner of Charles-Court near York-Buildings in the Strand.

London, Fucus for Shoes; being an unparallel'd Composition of the most pure and rich Blacks, choice Oils, &c. and is a thing so adapted to the Use, that the World never yet produc'd the like Invention, having gain'd a general Applause, causing the straitest Shoes to wear with delight and ease, beautifies them to admiration, preserves the Leather from cracking or rotting to the very last, and frees the Feet of all Pains, Corns, swellings, &c. Sold only at the 7 Stars under St. Dunstan's Church in Fleetstreet, and at the Perfumers in the little Entry out of Castle Alley into the Royal Exchange. Price 12 d. a Roll. Note, one Roll serves off Person near Half a Year. Beware of that late Counterfeit falsely call'd Paris Fucus.

The Hypochondriack Mixture, which by its attenuating Quality opens all Obstructions of the Spleen, Mesentery. It reduces all ill Habits of the Body, Cachexy's to their true Texture, by sweetening the Blood, correcting the Juices, and carrying off all Impurities, by Sweat or Urine. It is highly commended in the most inveterate Melancholies. It wonderfully relieves such as are troubled with the Gout, Dropsy, Scurvy. Is only to be sold by Mr. Dows at his Coffee-house the corner of Bartholomew-Lane behind the Royal Exchange, and Mr. Sackett's, at the Golden Perruque, the Corner of Hemlock-Court in Little Lincoln-Inn-Fields. Price 2 s. 6 d. the Bottle, with Printed Directions.

Just Publish'd,

The Devout Christian's Companion: or, A complete Manual of Devotions, fitted for most of the Concerns of Human Life, with particular Offices for Sick and Dying Persons. To which is added, The Paschal Lamb, a Treatise explaining the Nature, Design, and Benefit of the Holy Sacrament; with suitable Devotions proper to be used before, at, and after Receiving. Collected from the Works of Arch-Bishop Tillotson, Bp. Taylor, Bp. Patrick, Bp. Kenn, Bp. Beveridge, Dr. Scott, Dr. Horneck, Dr. Stanhope, &c. Printed for Charles Smith at the Buck between the Two Temple Gates in Fleetstreet, and Edmund Gurl at the Peacock without Temple-Bar. Price 2 s.

Chronicon Preciosum: Or, An Account of English Money, the Price of Corn, and other Commodities, for the last 600 Years. In a Letter to a Student in the University of Oxford. Printed for Charles Harper at the Flower-de-luce over-against St. Dunstan's Church in Fleetstreet, 1707.

Just publish'd,

A Sermon preach'd to the Societies for Reformation of Manners in the Cities of London and Westminster, October the 7th 1706. By Samuel Palmer. Printed for J. Lawrence at the Angel in the Poultry.